1 The quoted fee includes:

- considering documents
- attending on the client
- taking their instructions and providing advice
- preparing and helping to submit the application
- advising the client on timelines and the outcome of their application;

- 2 some applications are subject to NHS health surcharge which is currently £400 per person per year. This fee is expected to increase to £624 in October 2020;
- 3 VAT at 20% is extra and will be charged if the client is located in the UK or the EU;
- 4 we may ask the client for an up front payment of up to 100% of the fee where we do not know the client. Otherwise we bill monthly and expect payment within 14 days after month end;
- 5 fixed fees are subject to revision if the relevant matter becomes protracted, complex or if we are required to do work outside of the agreed scope. The client shall be notified if this becomes the case;
- 6 there are 4 solicitors or European registered lawyers who may provide immigration advice. They are Tom Redfern, Yulia Gutkovich, Alessia Zanni and Sonum Behar. Their experience is set out on the About Us/Our People page.
